"Mr. Fix-R" is a wonderplay with Fairbanks doing his most wonderful work. The role is full of surprises and is propaganda in favor of real happiness with the argument lat happiness comes to those who make other people happy. The genial heart-fixer, Mr. Frirbinks, gets busy along original lines when he learns the stories of young women involved in serious troubles. How he wins out and brings everything to a happy conclusion is one of the best things ever filmed. A DOG'S LIFE"

A Bombshell of Joy-A 42 Centimeter Shell of Laughter. The biggest, brightest, funniest comedy ever made in the history of the world. A dog's life for Charley, but one roar of unrestrained laughter after another for the audience. It's a big dose of laughing gas and you'll stay under an hour.

"I'm so funny in this picture I laughed at myself for the first time in my life," said Charley as he reviewed "A Dog's Life." The picture that tempted all the motion picture spies in California and resulted in the arrest of 50 men. They found out nothing until the picture came out, and now they don't know how it was all done.
